

"I went along to meet Shez Hopkins, the club's Project Manager, and the team to talk over ideas. We liked the 'break through broken wall' design (which I used for the NHS mural), as it suited the skyline view upstairs at Level Two, with bricked roof tops and the sky.

"Then I incorporated various youth silhouettes and a rainbow in support of LGBTQI+, and, of course, the Level Two logo.

"I'm very pleased with the result and delighted to say that the feedback from the young people has been really positive."
